Old Business: Ryan's club logo entry has been approved by the club membership.

New Business: David KB7GFL, informed the club that Bank of America will now be assessing our business savings account a monthly $10 maintenance fee. David went to Bank of America and inquired about club options with an account manager. These options were discussed during this meeting. Members requested David inquire with Coastal Bank in Sultan to see if Coastal Bank may offer a free account that would meet our needs. After checking, David will send the information to Tom who will distribute via email to the membership. Charlie brought up the idea of checking with club membership to determine if the club wants to change net night and net times. The aim is to increase net participation.
